

Hello. Is it you we're looking for?

Head of Scenic Art

Location: Nottingham | Permanent, full-time | £38,000 - 45,000 depending on experience

Would you like to lead the creation of stunning scenic art for some of the biggest shows in theatre?

At Rocket Scenery, we craft sets for world class productions, including Operation Mincemeat, Oliver!, Moulin Rouge, Sister Act, and Annie, and we're looking for a dynamic and enthusiastic Head of Scenic Art to join our growing team and lead it into the future.

As Head of Scenic Art, you'll lead a dedicated team of permanent and freelance scenic artists, working closely with top designers to deliver beautiful, detailed, and imaginative finishes. You'll combine hands-on creativity with team leadership, ensuring our Scenic Art department continues to build on our reputation for quality, beautiful work. We're looking for someone who brings both strong traditional scenic skills and an enthusiasm for new materials and techniques.

It's an exciting time to join Rocket, with a new team and a packed diary of high-profile productions ahead, there's plenty of scope to make your mark.

Holiday and sick pay, pension contributions, and other employee benefits included.
